

#MeToo at Two: Legal & Practical Changes in the Workplace

In October 2017, the #MeToo movement went viral, exposing rampant sexual misconduct in the workplace. Fast forward two years: How has the movement impacted California employers? Join Kevin Kish, Director of the California Department of Fair Employment & Housing, and our other panelists for a timely discussion on the legal and practical changes instigated by #MeToo and best practices to ensure a healthy and compliant workplace.

November 18, 2019

Registration: 11:30-12:00

Program: 12:00-3:00

Golden Gate University
536 Mission Street, Fifth Floor Auditorium
San Francisco, CA

(MCLE approval pending)

Eventbrite: $70.00 (lunch included): Click to Register

Panelists:

Kevin Kish
Director,
Department of Fair
Employment & Housing

Katie Collins
Senior Director
Human Resources,
Bon Appetit
Management
Company

Julie Ann Giammona
Ferber Law
Defense Counsel
for Employers

Andrea
Kelly
Smethurst
Workplace
Investigator

Allison West
Trainer/Investigator/Expert
Employment Practices
Specialists

Moderator: Margaret Grover, Grover Workplace Solutions